MEMBER STATION GENERAL CODE

The General, Business, Technical, and Program Codes drawn up and approved by the Governing Council shall be complied with fully at all times by Members; where applicable, by Affiliates; and as quickly as possible by groups with Trial Status.

1. Every member shall assume full responsibility for its acts and the acts in its behalf of individuals associated with it or under its direction.
2. Every member shall offer to all students of the institution which it serves who are equally qualified in effort, attitude, and ability, equal opportunity to join and participate in its activities.
3. No member shall distribute profit, pay dividends, or otherwise compensate persons associated with it or under its direction, except in the payment of reasonable fixed salaries for services rendered, or in the payment of loans with legitimate interest.
4. Every member shall have and adhere to a constitution registered with the Intercollegiate Broadcasting System and setting forth its objects, organization, and policies, or shall reduce to writing such objects, organization, and policies as it may have and register the same with the Intercollegiate Broadcasting System.
5. All changes in the objects, organization, or policies of any member shall be registered in writing with the Intercollegiate Broadcasting System no more than 21 days after they become effective.

The General Board of Directors, and the Board of Directors, shall be composed of representatives of the various groups, and as such, shall be responsible for the general policy of the organization.

Every member shall exercise full responsibility for his acts and the acts in the belief of individuals associated with it or under its direction.

Every member shall strive to all students of the institution which it serves and shall be qualified in effort, attitude, and ability to give opportunity to join and participate in the activities of the institution.

No member shall discriminate on the basis of race, color, or other factors in the selection of individuals for membership or in the payment of dues or in the payment of interest.

Every member shall have the right to a corporation registered with the Internal Revenue Service and shall be eligible to receive the same. Every member shall have the right to be elected to the office of president, vice president, or other officer of the organization, and shall be eligible to be elected to the office of president, vice president, or other officer of the organization.

All changes in the organization, or policies of any member shall be referred to the Internal Revenue Service for their approval. No member shall be elected to the office of president, vice president, or other officer of the organization unless he has been approved by the Internal Revenue Service.
